Contents: This Directive implements the Scholarship and Bursary Code of Palacký University Olomouc, as amended, for the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry of Palacký University Olomouc.

Responsibility: Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry of Palacký University, Dean of the Faculty

Date the policy comes into force: As of the date of signing

Date the policy comes into effect: As of the date of its publication

Article 1
Master's Students

- 1) Full-time students who graduate with honours are entitled to a merit scholarship for outstanding study results calculated as follows:

Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) for the whole period of study	Scholarship per semester
CGPA = 1.00	CZK 1000
1.00 < CGPA < 1.51	CZK 500

- 2) The total merit scholarship for excellent study results equals the scholarship per semester multiplied by the number of semesters of the standard length of study in the respective programme of study.
- 3) The merit scholarship is paid as a lump sum after the completion of study by wire transfer to bank account designated by the student.

Article 2
Doctoral Students

- 1) Students who do not exceed the standard lengths of study in doctoral programmes of study accredited in Czech are entitled to doctoral scholarship for the respective academic year. The length of study includes the length of previous uncompleted study in doctoral degree programmes.
- 2) The scholarships for full-time doctoral students equal CZK 12,200.
- 3) If the financial situation of the Faculty is favourable, the Dean may decide on a one-off increase in the scholarship. Students who have interrupted studies are not entitled to the scholarship as long as their studies are interrupted.
- 4) Scholarships under Paragraph 2 are paid monthly by wire transfer to a bank account designated by the student.
- 5) Students on programmes of study taught in English may qualify for J.L. Fischer Scholarship in accordance with the existing Instruction of the Rector of Palacký University Olomouc. For the Faculty this scholarship equals EUR 3000. This scholarship is awarded by the Dean of the Faculty subject to consideration of the request by the Research and Scientific Committee of the Faculty.

Article 3
Research and Teaching Activities of Students

- 1) Scholarships for research and teaching activities of students are awarded under the Directive of the Dean of the Faculty on research and teaching activities of students upon proposal by the Head of the respective department and subject to approval of the Dean of the Faculty, or upon proposal of the Dean of the Faculty.

- 2) The maximum limit for such scholarship equals CZK 4000 for semester.
- 3) The scholarship for teaching activities is paid as a lump sum after the end of the respective semester.
- 4) The scholarship for research activities is paid after a successful oral presentation of the results of such activities at a Student Research Projects Conference. If more students participate in one research project, the scholarship is divided in proportion to their contributions as determined by the supervisor.
- 5) At the Student Research Projects Conference three best presentations in individual categories will be chosen by an expert board. The authors of these research projects will be awarded an extraordinary scholarship as determined by the Dean.

Article 4

Extraordinary Scholarship

- 1) Both Master's and doctoral students participating in research and teaching activities may be repeatedly awarded an extraordinary scholarship by the Dean of the Faculty in order to stabilize the human resources at the respective department. The maximum monthly limit for such scholarship equals CZK 10,000.
- 2) Both Master's and doctoral students may be awarded an extraordinary scholarship by the Dean for an original paper published in a journal with an impact factor.

Final Provisions

- 1) This Directive comes into force on the date it is issued, i.e. signed by the Dean of the Faculty, and becomes effective upon its publishing on the website of the Faculty.
- 2) Dean's Directive No. LF – B3-1/2015-PN of 25 November 2015 is hereby repealed.
