

Program of Study : General Medicine
Course : FRACTURES IN CHILDREN
Abbreviation : TRA/ VA041
Schedule : 4 hours of seminars
Course distribution : 5th year, winter semester
Number of Credits : 1
Course Form : Seminary

Seminars:

Teachers: doc. MUDr. Pavel Dráč, Ph.D.
MUDr. Ján Palčák
MUDr. Miroslav Homza
MUDr. Jaromír Freiwald
MUDr. Petr Špiroch PhD.
MUDr. Pavel Sedlák
MUDr. Michal Knápek
MUDr. Ivo Dospěl
MUDr. Peter Zborovjan
MUDr. Igor Mysliveček
MUDr. Jiří Chamrád
MUDr. Marek Ošťádal
MUDr. Ján Kriváček
MUDr. Lukáš Vinter
MUDr. Ondřej Dokoupil

Study: block, 13:00 – 16:00, Library of Traumatology Clinic

	Date	Topics	No. of Less.
1	4.5.2023	Evolution and growth of bone, Epidemyology of the pediatric fractures, Types of pediatric fractures and epiphyseal plate injuries, Diagnostics of pediatric fractures, Strategy of pediatric fractures management - bandages, traction, surgical treatment, Most common pediatric fractures of upper and lowe extremities and pelvis, Complicationss of the trauma to growing skeleton	4

Completed by: Credit

Requirements: Attendance during the whole seminary, active participation.

Recommended reading:

1. Canale S.T. : Fractures and dislocations in children, In : Canale S.T., Beauty J.H. : Campbell's operative orthopaedics, volume II, eleventh edition, Mosby Elsevier 2008, p. 1531-1725.
2. De Boer P, Morgan JS, van der Werken, C: Handbook of Orthopaedic Trauma Care, Thieme 2009, ISBN 9783131468710.